An experienced timber-getter estimates the value of the hickory alone, for Spokes, at double the assessed value of the land, The pine and oak furnish the finest masts and

The arable land has heretofore been cultivated by intelligent and liberal agriculturists, and un-til the war with extraordinary remunerative re-sults. The estate was somewhat neglected during the war, and the owners have not had the means since of restering it to its former produc-tiveness. 200 acres of this land have been cropped continuously for nearly a century, and will now produce from 50 to 75 bushels of corn to the now produce from 50 to 75 bushels of corn to the acre. Marl is abundant on the place, and has been liberally applied. The Mattaponi is a beautiful stream. Its navigation was obstructed during the war, but at a slight expense it can be made navigable for vessels of 100 tons to the landing on the estate. "Goose Pond" adjoins the famous Corbin estate, "The Reeds," and also "Hays," the justly celebrated estate of Major Wm. N. Berkeley, separated from "Goose Pond" only by the Mattaponi river.
